

HARNESS RACING AUSTRALIA AWARDS

Joseph Coulter Awards Criteria

The Harness Racing Australia Joseph Coulter Media Awards commenced in 1976 and are awarded each year to the media adjudged as the best in each category.

The Awards are announced in late January/early February due to the judging process for all categories.

The Call for Nominations is put out on the harness.org.au website in early January for those wishing to nominate either their own work or someone else's who they believe is worthy of an award.

A copy of the article, book, photograph or program must accompany each nomination as well as details of where and when it was published or aired.

HRA's Media Awards cover a number of categories. These are:

Literary

"Joseph Coulter" Best News Story of the Year

Graham Goffin Memorial Awards

Best Feature of the Year

Best Regional Story

Best Historical Feature

Best Book

Photography - Best Published Action or Still Photograph

Radio – Best Feature to Air

Radio/Television/Film – Best Feature to Air

Promotion – Award of Merit

For Demonstrated Excellence in Promotion

For Demonstrated Excellence in Social Media Usage & Innovation.

Literary

The literary Award nominations above are submitted to HRA for judging and must have been published in newspapers, magazines or on-line during a specific season.

Books

The Best Book category nominations are submitted to HRA for judging and must have been published during the specific season.

Photography

The Best Published Action or Still Photograph category nominations are submitted to HRA for judging and must have been published during the specific season.

TV / Video / Film

The Best Feature to Air in Television, Video or Film category nominations are submitted to HRA for judging and must have been aired during the specific season.

Commentary / Radio

The Best Feature to Air in the Radio category nominations are submitted to HRA for judging and must have been aired during the specific season.

Promotion

The categories for the Promotion Award of Merit are:

For Demonstrated Excellence in Promotion
For Demonstrated Excellence in Social Media Usage & Innovation.

Nominations are submitted to HRA for judging and must relate to a promotion during the specific season.

Miscellaneous (Special Recognition)

This award is presented on a needs basis to someone it is believed is worthy of recognition in media which does not come under any of the above awards.