After viewing the official film of an incident in the front straight to the finish Andrew De Campo driver of the fourth placed NOWUSEEME, protested against Kevin Keys, driver of the second placed SECRET INTERLUDE, alleging interference in the run to the finish. After taking evidence from both drivers, viewing the official videos and acting on their own observations, Stewards dismissed the protest and gave All Clear on the judges' numbers.

General

Stewards inquired into the reason for SPECIAL DIVA (Morgan Woodley) being checked racing out of the back straight on the first occasion. It was established that SECRET INTERLUDE (Kevin Keys) had eased towards the marker pegs to obtain a trailing position, however, SPECIAL DIVA had worked to its inside momentarily and over reacted when being eased. In the circumstances, no action was taken.

Stewards inquired into the reason for NOWUSEEME (Andrew De Campo) racing roughly racing in the front straight on the final occasion. It was established that SECRET INTERLUDE (Kevin Keys) initially followed PRISCILLA ROCKS (Chris Lewis) up the track when that filly shifted out under pressure and continued to shift wider on the track having gained an advantage on NOWUSEEME racing to its outside. However, Mr De Campo resisted that shift. In consequence NOWUSEEME contacted the sulky of SECRET INTERLUDE and raced roughly for a short distance. General

Stewards inquired into the reason for ARGENT TREASURE (Chris Lewis) being checked racing out of the back straight on the final occasion.
