

2007 WORLD DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP

Victoria & New Zealand, November 1-9

A selection of the world's best drivers will converge on Victoria in the first week of November to compete in the opening 12 races of the 2007 World Driving Championship. Held every second year, the 20 race series will then reach its conclusion in New Zealand. Invited to compete in this universally recognised event are Kerryn Manning (Australia), Colin De Filippi (New Zealand), Andy Miller (USA), Gilles Barrieu (Canada), Bjorn Goop (Sweden), Eirik Hoitomt (Norway), Antti Teivainen (Finland), Christophe Martens (Belgium), Veiko Tamajaru (Estonia) and Hugo Langeweg Jnr (Netherlands).

Trainers are invited to nominate their horses for the World Driving Championship races at Cranbourne (November 1), Moonee Valley (November 3) and Maryborough (November 4). All races are PENALTY FREE and horses will be randomly allocated a driver from the list of invitees.
