Bookmakers ring in talent

LONG-time Albion Park bookmakers Vince Aspinall and Pat Kynoch will spearhead the bookmakers ring at the Gold Coast during the 2009 Watpac Inter Dominion carnival.

Aspinall and Kynoch will be joined by Rob Duncan, Michael Klingley, John Kynoch and Terry Piccone for the three-night carnival on March 14, 21 and 28.

The line-up will offer the odds on all Gold Coast races and a southern event service will also be held with the understanding that interstate punters will be trackside.

Aspinall, a keen student, is also a leading thoroughbred bookmaker but has a soft spot for harness racing.

"One of my biggest results as a bookmaker was in the 2001 Inter Dominion won by Yulestar," said Aspinall.

Queensland has always prided itself on a strong bookmakers ring at Inter Dominion time and 2009 will be no exception.

Aspinall is sifting through all possible Inter Dominion runners and will release a market later this week.
